10 Principles of Arya Samaj

- 1. God is the primary source of all true knowledge and all that is known by its means.(At the beginning of creation, nearly 2 Billion years ago, God gave the knowledge of 4 Vedas to four learned Rishis named Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira. Four Vedas called Rig Ved, Yajur Ved, Sam Ved and Atharva Ved contain all true knowledge, spiritual and scientific, known to the world.)
- 2. God is existent, intelligent and blissful. He is formless, omnipotent, just, merciful, unborn, infinite, invariable (unchangeable), having no beginning, matchless (unparalleled), the support of all, the master of all, omnipresent, omniscient, ever young (imperishable), immortal, fearless, eternal, holy and creator of universe. To him alone worship is due.
- 3. Vedas are the scripture of all true knowledge. It is paramount duty of all Aryan to read them, teach and recite them to others.
- 4. All human beings should always be ready to accept the truth and give up untruth.
- 5. All our actions should be according to the principles of Dharma i.e. after differentiating right from wrong.
- 6. The primary aim of Arya Samaj is to do good to the human beings of whole world i.e. to its physical, spiritual and social welfare.
- 7. All human beings ought to be treated with love, justice and according to their merits as dictated by Dharma.
- 8. We should all promote knowledge (Vidya) and dispel ignorance (Avidya).
- 9. One should not be content with one's own welfare alone but should look for one's welfare in the welfare of all others.
- 10. In matters which affect the well being of all people an individual should subordinate any personal rights that are in conflict with the wishes of the majority. In matters that affect him/her alone he/she is free to exercise his/her human rights.

Purification of Knowledge

Paavakaah nah Sarasvati vaajebhirvaajinivati I yajnam vashtum dhiyaavasuh II

Rig Veda 1.3.10

Meaning in Text Order

Paavakaa = purifier

Nah = to us

Sarasvati = the knowledge of the Veda

Vaajebhir = wealth of knowledge and prosperity

Vaajinivati = associates us with pure and righteous deeds

Yajnam = welfare of others

Vashtum = accomplishment

Dhiyaa – vasuh = through knowledge and actions.

Meaning

The study of scriptures (Sarasvati) purifies the minds of human beings. It provides prosperity and sound knowledge. It allows a person to become enriched through righteous means and to aspire to utilise wealth for welfare purposes.

Contemplation

In Vedic terminology Sarasvati is the name of the knowledge which defines us as human beings. Let us worship mother knowledge. It provides us the juice in the form of knowledge, strength, nourishment, discretion, life, vitality, diligence and bliss. Knowledge makes an ignorant an ocean of learning, through that even disgraced become sages. With its blessing, the feeble generate internal strength. By acquiring it devil turn to be divine. It generates diligence, sharpens the intellect and teaches us to be remain always in action. May the knowledge be part of our life and make us successful in every walk of life. For the comprehensive development of divine qualities, we should worship Sarasvati. Knowledge has the strength to purify us. It is said – nahi gnyanam sadrisham pavitramiha vidyate. There is nothing compared to knowledge to assist in our purification. All impurities derive from ignorance. Ignorance is the root cause of most calamities. Purity of knowledge becomes the means of salvation.

Through knowledge we acquire wealth, prosperity and materialistic prosperity. The penance for seeking knowledge makes people strong and generates among them the spirit of sacrifice. The proper utilisation of wealth is to devote it for the welfare of others.

Veda is also called Sarasvati as it is full of knowledge, providing knowledge to humans as a fountain provides water and quenches the thirst of human beings. The knowledge of Veda provides purification to the mind of listener. Understanding the meaning of the mantra inspires the reader's mind. It provides sharp intellect and inspires mankind to do their duty. We offer our homage to mother Sarasvati

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2018 – 2019
FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES PRESENTED
BY MRS. BRIJ BALA DUGGAL
FOR THE AGM ON 28TH JULY 2019
HELD AT ARYA SAMAJ (VEDIC MISSION) WEST MIDLANDS.

Following the last AGM (29th July 2018) and after gaining the vote of members, Dr. Narendra Kumar applied for an extension of another two year term to remain 'Chairman' of the Board of Trustees of Arya Samaj (Vedic Mission) West Midlands and has continued to take full responsibility for following up the unfinished work at the building. This has involved dealing with all issues directly and indirectly with Project Manager, Builders and HS2 Representatives as well as managing 'day to day' affairs of ASWM and organising events etc. As contemplated, at the last AGM, the building work has continued and there are still some external repairs as well as basement work to be carried out.

The Appeal made to our members early last year, for raising funds for work not covered by HS2, has enabled us to raise over £60,000 so far and continues to rise. The Board of Trustees take this opportunity to acknowledge members generous support and at the same time thank them all for the same.

Women's Help Centre

After four difficult meetings, held between period of September 2017 till June 2018, and our futile attempts to reach agreement on issues of Lease/rent, with our tenant, we had to issue a Notice to WHC either to pay proper rent or vacate the premises. WHC decided to vacate the premises and asked for compensation of £7000. ASWM offered to pay £4000 through our solicitors. This amount was paid and they moved out on 29th March 2019. This part of the building stands empty and requires complete refurbishment. We have made a planning application for 'Change of Use' so that we can turn it into offices on first floor and a retail shop on ground floor which will enable us to earn a regular income for ASWM.

A Memorable Year

Last year, on the whole, was a mixture of sorrows and joys. Joys in terms of our achievements and all the happy occasions, members have celebrated at ASWM i.e. birthdays, anniversaries, festivals and of course a fantastic Charity Dinner Evening with entertainment from famous Ghazal Singers. Sorrows relate to our loss of so many devoted members.

Sponsored Yajman

Total sponsored Yajmans for Sunday Havans in the year 2018 (Jan-Dec) were 18. This is less than 2/3 of last year's figure. However, since April this year there has been some improvement in Sunday Havan bookings by new members.

Sanskar Performed by Acharya Ji

Acharya Ji performed 47 sanskars in the last year (April 2018 – March 2019). Total income from these was £3818.

During the period from July 2018 to June 2019 more than twelve functions and events were organised by ASWM. I give below brief details of some of these:

- Lectures by Dr. Naveen Kumar Arya - These took place at the Bhavan from 8th of August to 12th of August 2018.
- Ved Katha 26th August to 2nd September 2018 - Ved Katha sessions took place between 6:30 and 7:30 pm. throughout the week. Acharya Yadav Ji shed light on Kenopanishad Katha.
- Gaytri Maha Yajna – 9th September 2018 - Annual Maha Yajna was held on 9th September 2018 and this was the first one at our new Bhavan. More than 150 people participated in this event. The whole event was recorded by Aastha Television Channel team and subsequently televised.

- Diwali Celebration – 10th November 2018 - This event was attended by 150 people. The evening began with Havan at 6:00 pm followed by refreshments and Diwali sweets being served at 6:30 pm. The day's programme included songs, dances and ghazals and Rishi Langar was provided by Arya Samaj.
- Charity Dinner and Entertainment Evening – 1st December 2018 - This event which we called 'Ghazal Ki Shaam' was a tremendous success and helped raise funds by £3,000 after deducting expenses. Throughout the evening, we were entertained by Mr. Qamar Ali, Meena Kumari and Mr. Saber Massi (famous ghazal singers and Tabla players). The programme started at 6:00 pm and went on till after 11 pm with breaks for refreshments and dinner.
- Republic Day Celebration – 27th January 2019 - We celebrated 70th Republic Day of India in the presence of more than 80 members.

In addition to the above mentioned events ASWM also celebrated

Raksha Bandan on 26th August 2018, Krishan Janamashtmi on 2nd September 2018, Basant Panchami on 10th February 2019, Holi Festival on 24th March 2019, Rishi Bodh Utsav, and Arya Samaj 144th Foundation Day on 7th April 2019.

Historical Day for Arya Samaj - 26th June 2019

We are now on the list of Religious places to be visited by students/pupils from Schools in Birmingham and first of these visits took place on 26th June 2019. We were visited by 170 pupils (aged 12-13 yrs) from year 8 of Great Barr Academy. They came in two separate groups each accompanied by 5 teachers. They were shown around the building then given a brief introduction to Arya Samaj, our beliefs and principles and activities.

Parents and Toddler Group

This was a six month project funded by 'Ageing Better' that began on 6th June 2018 and ended in November 2018. Allocated funding was not fully utilized. A part-time cook was employed on Wednesdays during this period.

Matrimonial Services

Our Matrimonial services are not being used as much as they have been in the past. Although we have new registrations, previous members are often not renewing and of course some of them are now married. Despite our efforts to improve services, update technology and organise another matrimonial day, bookings were too low and imbalanced for us to proceed with the organised matrimonial day.

Activities

Our Day Centre and Yoga group continue to take place on Wednesday mornings between 11:00am and 1:00 pm. Lunch is available after 1:00 p.m.

Another Yoga group was started in May 2019 and this takes place on Thursday evenings between 7.00pm and 8 .15p.m. Dr. Dheeraj Joshi from the CGI office (a well acclaimed Yoga Teacher) teaches Yog Pranayam (Level 1). All are welcome and is total free.

Our Congregation continues to meet on Sundays to perform Havan, listen to Acharya Ji's parvachan and share news and information. Rishi Langar is provided at 1:00 pm.

On the first Sunday of each Month between 7:00 am and 8:00 am Acharya ji gives Vedic sermons on Radio XL Birmingham as well as information and news about forthcoming events at ASWM.

We are working on setting up Indian Classical Dance Classes in the near future.

In concluding my report for the year, I would like to add that despite all the outstanding building repairs and new repair problems arising, members of the Board of Trustees have worked really hard and shown great commitment to promote the work of Arya Samaj. We have continued to organise events and provide much needed services to our community. Despite pressures and distractions we remain focussed.

You will all be pleased to know that Mr. Joginder Pal Sethi and Mr. Vijay Kumar have now been appointed as member of our Board of Trustees. Other changes are that two members of the Board of Trustees have left during this period.

Board of Trustees would like to thank Acharya Yadav Ji for his vital role in ASWM and would also like to thank Raji Chauhan our Office Manager for her role and her work often under pressure of tight deadlines.

A special thanks from us also goes to Mr. Harish Malhotra Ji for his devotional duty towards ASWM at all events.

Lastly, but most importantly, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, I would like to thank all our members for their continued support and commitment to ASWM. As I have said in my previous reports, it is with your support that we continue to carry on the valuable work started by our Founder Maharishi Dayanand Saraswati.

Children's Corner Jataka Tales

The Hawks and Their Friends

This is another interesting story from the album of Jataka Tales.

Once upon a time, there lived a family of Hawks in a lake near a forest. The family included Female-Hawk, Male-Hawk and their Kid-Hawks. All of them were passing their days happily. There also lived a Lion, a Kingfisher and a Turtle on the northern, the eastern and the southern shore of this lake respectively. One day, the Female-Hawk asked her husband, “Sweetheart, how many friends do you have near here?”

The Male-Hawk replied, “I do have friends, but not one in this part of the forest”. The Female-Hawk advised, “Dear, you must find some friends. At least, we should have someone who can help us, if ever we are in trouble or danger”. The Male-Hawk asked, “With whom shall I make friends?” The Female-Hawk suggested, “You can make friends with the Kingfisher, the Lion and the Turtle, who live on the eastern, the northern and the southern shore of this lake”.

The Male-Hawk liked the idea and went to the Lion, the Kingfisher and the Turtle and one by one made friends with them. Everyone was happy to make a new friend. Everything was going smoothly in their life. Suddenly one day, some men came to the forest for hunting. They hunted in the forest from morning till night, but found nothing. They didn't want to go home empty-handed, so they went to the lake in order to see what they could find there.

After the whole day, they were tired. When they couldn't locate anything even on the lake, one of them said, "let us stay here tonight and see what we can find in the morning". All of them agreed to the proposal. They made beds of leaves for themselves and lay down to sleep. They made beds under the tree in which the Hawk family had its nest. However, the hunters could not sleep because they were disturbed by the flies and the mosquitoes.

Ultimately, they got up and built a fire on the shore of the lake, so that the fumes would drive away the flies and mosquitoes. The fumes awoke the Hawks and the Kid-Hawks cried out. Hearing the cries of the Kid-Hawks, one of the hunters said to the other, "Did you hear that? That was the cry of the birds. They will be nice for our breakfast. There are young ones in that nest" pointing towards the nest. The hunters put more wood on the fire and made it blaze up.

The Hawks listened to the conversation of the hunters. The Female-hawk got frightened and said to her husband, "These men are planning to eat our young ones. We have to ask our friends to save us. Ask the Kingfisher to help us, as we are in danger". The Male-Hawk flew speedily to the Kingfisher's nest and made him awake with his cry. The Kingfisher asked the Hawk, "Why have you come at this late hour of night?" The Male-Hawk narrated the whole story to the Kingfisher.

The Kingfisher consoled the Hawk and said, "Don't worry my friend. I will help you. Go back and comfort your mate. I am just coming". The Male-Hawk flew back to his nest quickly and the Kingfisher also came at the location. On arriving, the Kingfisher saw the burning fire and instantly, beating the water with his wings sprinkled water on the fire and put it out. The Hunters made another fire and one of them, tried to climb the tree. The Kingfisher put out the fire once again.

As often as the fire was made, the Kingfisher put it out. By the Midnight, the Kingfisher got very tired. The Female-Hawk noticed the condition of the Kingfisher and said to her husband, “The Kingfisher is tired. Go and ask the Turtle to come and help us. In the meantime, the Kingfisher can take some rest”. The Male-Hawk quickly flew down and told the Kingfisher, Rest a while friend. I am going to get the Turtle”.

Subsequently, the Male-Hawk flew towards the southern shore of the lake and awakened the Turtle. The Turtle asked the Hawk, “What happened friend? Why have you come?” The Male-Hawk replied, “A danger has come to us” and told the whole story about the hunters. He also said, “The Kingfisher has been working for hours and he is tired by now. That is why I have come to you”. At once the Turtle said, “I will help you”.

After this the Turtle went to the place where the Hawks lived. He dived into the water, collected some mud and put the fire out with it. On seeing the Turtle the hunters cried, “Why to bother for the young hawks? Let us kill this Turtle. It will make a nice breakfast for us. We have to be careful otherwise it will bite us. Let us throw a net over it and turn it over”. But they didn’t have nets with them, so they took some vines and tore their clothes to make a net.

When they tried to put the net over the Turtle, they could not roll him over. Instead, the Turtle suddenly dived down into the deep water making their efforts vain. The hunters got so impatient to get the turtle that they went down into the deep water. When they came out of the water, they said, “Half of the night, a Kingfisher kept putting out our fires. Now, we have torn our clothes and got wet while trying to get this turtle. We will make another fire and eat those young hawks at sunrise”. With this, they started making another fire.

The Female-Hawk was hearing the conversation of the hunters. She said to her partner, “I am afraid, sooner or later these men will get our young ones. Go and ask our friend, the Lion to help us”. The Male-Hawk flew to the Lion at once. The Lion asked the Hawk, “Why have you come at this late hour of night?” The Hawk narrated to him the whole story. The Lion said, “Don’t worry friend. I am just coming. You go back and comfort your mate and the young ones”.

Soon, the Lion came roaring at the place. On hearing the Lion’s roar, the hunters cried, “Now, all of us will be killed”. They ran away from the scene as fast as they could run. When the Lion approached the tree, not even a single hunter was visible. At that time, the Kingfisher and the Turtle also came on the scene. The Hawks were happy to find the hunters were gone. They appreciated the efforts made by all of their friends and lived happily thereafter.

Moral: Friends in need are friends indeed
